

PETER PAN

jumpingducks

PETER PAN • SYNOPSIS

We are in a quiet room in England, just as the city is falling asleep, when suddenly a sound wakes us up: the window opens and the soft jingle of bells fills the air. It's Peter Pan coming from far away to ask for our help.

Peter lives in a magical place full of rivers, trees, and animals but no school! Peter invites us to Neverland to learn and have fun together. With help from the cheeky fairy Tinker Bell and her magic dust, we fly off on a new adventure.

In Neverland, we play, sing, dance, and even learn to tell the time and do maths! But all the fun wakes up the fierce Pirate Hook who wants to steal the magic dust to escape the crocodile and trap us on the island forever!

Hook tries to trick us into joining his pirate crew and stealing the dust. Just when all seems lost, we hear a ticking sound: the crocodile is near! Hook flees, and we're safe again.

Now it's time to go home. With one last sprinkle of magic dust, we close our eyes, hear the bells, and fly back home, to school, to wherever our imagination takes us.

